

who built qutub minar at delhi

By admin / March 22, 2024

1. Akbar
2. Humayun
3. Khijir Kha
4. Qutubuddin Aibak

View Answer Qutubuddin Aibak

SOLUTION

Important Points

- Qutubuddin Aibak time period 1206-1210
- • Originally a slave, Qutubuddin because of his merit and loyal service was rose up to the post of viceroy by Mohammad Ghori. After Ghori's death, Aibak ruled over Delhi and founded his dynasty.
- Lahore and later Delhi was his capital.
- For his generosity, he was given the title of Lakh Baksh.
- • He constructed two mosques Quwat-ul-Islam at Delhi and Adhaidin ka Jhopra at Ajmer. He also began the construction of Qutub Minar in the honour of famous Sufi Saint Khwaja Qutub-ud-Din Bakhtiyar Kaki.
- • Aibak was great patron of learning and patronised writers like Hasan-ul- Nizami, author of Taj-ul-Massin and Fakhruddin, author of Tarikh-i- Mubarak-Shahi. He fell from the horse while playing chaugan (Polo) and died.

Know Details about Qutb Minar fellow the click hare buttom

